

Life History Volumes, 2002 to 2013

A collection (a Reader) of students' life history papers in each of the last ten years is available and on reserve (2 hours) for the course in the Ethnic Studies Library.

1. Reader, Biographies of Asian Immigrant Women and Men in America, 2013 Life History Book Project for Gender and Generation in Asian American Families, Asian American Studies.
2. Reader, Biographies of Asian Immigrant Women and Men in America, 2012 Life History Book Project for Gender and Generation in Asian American Families, Asian American Studies.
3. Reader, Biographies of Asian Immigrant Women in America, 2011 Life History Book Project for Asian American Women: Theory & Experience, Asian American Studies.
4. Reader, Biographies of Asian Immigrant Women in America, 2010 Life History Book Project for Asian American Women: Theory & Experience, Asian American Studies.
5. Reader, Biographies of Asian Immigrant Women in America, 2009 Life History Book Project for Asian American Women: Theory & Experience, Asian American Studies.
6. Reader, Stepping Onto New Soil: Biographies of Seven Asian Immigrant Women in America, 2008 Life History Book Project for Asian American Women: Theory & Experience, Asian American Studies.
7. Reader, Bridging Boundaries: Biographies of Eleven Asian Immigrant Women in America, 2006 Life History Book Project for Asian American Women: Theory & Experience, Asian American Studies.
8. Reader, Crossing Boundaries, 2005 Life History Book Project for Asian American Women: Theory & Experience, Asian American Studies.
9. Reader, Biographies of Thirteen Asian Immigrant Women in America: Never-Ending Journeys, 2004 Life History Book Project for Asian American Women: Theory & Experience, Asian American Studies.
10. Reader, Transforming Selves, Places and Histories: Biographies of Asian American Women, 2003 Life History Book Project for Asian American Women: Theory & Experience, Asian American Studies.
11. Reader, Life Histories of Asian Immigrant Women in America, 2002 Life History Book Project for Asian American Women: Theory & Experience, Asian American Studies.